

Manufacturing Manager Point Eight Power

Core Requirements

The Manufacturing Manager is responsible for empowering and leading a team through modeling of the organizational values, and developing and managing a manufacturing framework that positively impacts the organizational strategy, mission and vision.

Responsibilities

The key responsibilities of this position include:

- Accurately understanding and modeling the PEP brand, mission, vision, values and organizational strategy in senior leadership team meetings for filtering decisions and in communications with PEP employees
- Developing and effectively managing the departmental manufacturing strategy map and plan which is aligned to the organizational strategy.
- Accurately representing departmental strategy at all levels in the organization.
- Developing and sustaining efficient processes focused on productivity and client requirements with an emphasis on lean manufacturing philosophies.
- Effectively coaching, empowering, and leading a team through performance management practices to ensure an engaged and fulfilled workforce, which supports the departmental processes.
- Implementing effective resource planning and scheduling (workforce, equipment, alliances, etc.) to ensure efficient and maximized workflow.
- Proactively seeking out personal enrichment that positively impacts the area of responsibility.

Requirements and Qualifications

Candidates for Manufacturing Manager should excel at the following attributes:

- Leading Others
- Self Management
- Conceptual Thinking
- Personal Accountability
- Teamwork
- Goal Achievement
- Results Orientation

Candidates for Manufacturing Manager should possess the following experience/education:

- TBD